MISS ELISE McALISTER DEAD.

A Sweet Young Life Ended in Charlotte This Morning.

Her many friends in this city learned with a pang of sincere sorrow, of the death of Miss Elise McAlister, of Asheboro, which occurred at 1 o'clock this morning in Charlotte. The sad intelligence was first received here in telegram from her brother, Mr. A. W. McAlister, of this city, who went to Charlotte yesterday morning.

Miss McAlister was 19 years old and had about half completed a course at the Presbyterian college, in Charlotte, when she was taken sick about three weeks ago. Her condition soon became alarming, and she was removed from the college to the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E Carson, and from that time until her death received all the attention that medical skill and loving relatives could give.

She was the daughter of Col. and Mrs. A C. McAlister, of Asheboro, and the youngest of eight children. Her death is the first to occur in the family; and young, beautiful and loving as she was, it was hard to give her up.

The remains were brought to Asheboro today where the funeral will be preached at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Presbyterian church. Mrs. F. E Ross, Mr. E P. Wharton, and probably others of this city will attend the funeral.

Mr. Jones' Lecture.

An instructive lecture was given by James R. Jones last night at the Friends church. The cities of Milan and Rome occupied most of the address. The superstition of the Romish church is pitiable in their blindness and laughable in their inconsistencies. The lecturer has much to say. He has material for several addresses on Italy alone.

The Tribulations of Spain.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, May 6 -The plague of locusts in central Spain has increased alarmingly. In many places the insects cover the ground to a depth of two feet, stalling railroad trains.

Thirty-fourth Death.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Kirksville, Mo., May 6—The death of Miss Cunningham here today makes the thirty-fourth death resulting from the tornado of April 27. Others are still in a critical condition.

Postoffice Burglarized.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Bridgeton, N. J., May 6—The postoffice at Leesburg was burglarized last night. The safe was dynamited and the interior of the building wrecked.

AMERICANS TO UTILIZE RIVER.

As a Means For Conveying Supplies To the Front Instead of the Damaged Railroad.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Manila, May 6—Col. Arguelles, chief of Gen. Luna's staff, and one of the rebel envoys negotiating for peace with the Americans, made this remarkably significant statement today: "We undoubtedly are whipped. Aguinaldo is discouraged and our troops are determined to surrender. All that our leaders want is some guarantee of fair treatment as a condition of their laying down their arms. They ask a brief armistice only for the purpose of effecting a complete surrender through our congress. The Americans treat us wrongly to distrust our honesty."

THE RIVER TO BE UTILIZED.

Manila, May 6—Experiments demonstrate the practicability of utilizing the Rio San Fernando as a means for conveying supplies from Manila to the front instead of using the damaged railroad. In pursuance of this plan army tugs will proceed that way to the front, for the purpose of making such connection with McArthur's division.

A large body of Filipinos are reported moving around McArthur's left flank toward the railroad.

Reports from Iloilo state that all is quiet there, with commerce improving, but that Samar and Leyte show considerable military activity since the arrival of the Tagalog delegates.

LAWTON'S POSITION.

Manila, May 6 (afternoon)—Lawton's column advanced to a position two and a half miles north of Balinag today. Before making the forward movement. Lawton sent back to Manila two wounded men of the Minnesota regiment, one of the Oregon regiment, besides twenty sick soldiers. The advance met but slight opposition. Outside of Mass'n two thousand rebels occupying an entrenched position were routed in short order. Many rebel corpses were discovered in the San Tomas river. Scores of rifles and other arms were found in the river, discarded by the retreating rebels. McArthur's division is resting at San Fernando, making, in the meantime, extensive reconnoisances.

WILL CARNEGIE SELL?

Report That a Syndicate Wants to Buy Him Out.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, May 6—In response to an inquiry regarding the reported transfer of his business interests in the United States, Andrew Carnegid stated here today: "I have given my young business partner the terms on which I would be willing to sell my entire business in America. I have no definite information as yet whether they are going to buy or not but think they will."

STRUCK A SHOAL.

The Bennington, Of Dewey's Fleet, Gone to Hong Kong for Repairs.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 6—Dewey cables: "The Bennington ran upon a shoal, not charted, this side Panay. She came off twenty-three hours later, and was examined by divers. The injury is not serious but it will be necessary to dock the vessel. Have sent her to Hong Kong. No blame rests upon any one."

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT.

The Amphitrite Drops Shells Near Peaceful People on Land.

Columbia, S. C., May 4—Citizens of Hilton Head Island, near Port Royal, S. C., say the double turreted monitor Amphitrite, now practicing in the vicinity, is pointing her guns too much in their direction to be either pleasant or healthy. The Amphitrite is practicing with shells from rapid-firers. One of these projectiles dropped in a field where Benjamin Green was plowing and exploded. The darkey was frightened into a state of paralysis and could not hold the mule. Another shell landed in the yard of Henry Willis' house, right near two of his children. Fortunately it buried itself deep in the sand before exploding and did little damage. A third, that did not explode, struck at the headquarters of the United States hospital corps detachment.

By Cable to the Telegram

Paris, May 6—The war ministry has received bushels of letters and books addressed to Dreyfus, accompanied with requests to be sent to the prisoner. Much of the matter consists of tracts on the comforts of Christianity, sent by well meaning people in America and northern Europe.

The Graded School commencement opened yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, by a few words of welcome to the large crowd by Prof. George H. Crowell, and prayer by Rev. J. B. Richardson, of the Baptist church. The essays and orations were then rendered by the graduating class. All did their part well, and made it a morning of enjoyment for those present. Next on the program was the literary address by Prof. Claxton, of the State Normal and Industrial School, Greensboro, which was to have been delivered by Hon. Chas. W. Tillet, but on account of illness he could not come. Prof. Claxton made a strong speech on education, and one of the most interesting talks ever heard in this city.

A large crowd attended the reception last night at the school building. It was much enjoyed by all present.

Trinity Notes.

Dr. B. C. Steiner, lecturer on American Constitutional History at Johns Hopkins University, lectured before the Historical Society of Trinity College, Thursday evening, on "Causes of the American Revolution."

Jurney, members of the building committee of the Craven Memorial Hall, met at the college Wednesday and formally accepted the building from the contractor. The program of commencement has been changed and the sermon will be preached by Bishop Duncan, Monday evening, June 5th. The Alumni address will be delivered Tuesday, June 6th, 10:30 a.m., and at this time the Memorial Hall will be presented to the board of trustees. FOR THE SPEAKERSHIP,

Congressman Sherman, of New York Leading The Race,

TALK OF AN EXTRA SESSION

Of Congress is Being Revived—It is Believed The President Will Call It.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, May 6—The announcement of Representative Curtis, of Kansas, that he will vote in the republican caucus for Congressman Sherman, of New York, has caused much satisfaction among the supporters of the eastern candidate. Western representatives in Washington admit that the New York representative is a long way in advance of his competitors for the speakership, and at the time when the test of strength comes, it is believed that many of the western congressmen will support the eastern candidate. With so many candidates, there is much opportunity for the east making inroads among the supporters of the various candidates west of the Alleghanies. Congressman Curtis was seen Friday morning, and he stated that he believed that Sherman would be elected speaker, provided that sectionalism is left out of the contest, and while he does not speak for anyone but himself, he believes that several of the Kansas delegation will vote for the New York man.

The attitude of the southern representatives who will sit on the republican side is not known. There will be only a very few republicans from the south in the next house, but in the event of a close contest, a margin of half a dozen votes might mean a great deal. Representative Hawley, of Texas, is about the only southern republican of prominence now in the city. He stated Friday that he had not made up his mind as to whom he shall vote for, but that his action will not be influenced by sectional considerations, but that he will support the republican for speaker who will do the most, if elevated to the speaker's chair, for the South.

Talk of an extra session is being revived, and many republicans in the city believe that the president may call an extra session in order that the organization of the house may be effected before the convening of the regular session. If the president calls an extra session it will probably be about the first of October.

President and Mrs. McKinley, it is announced will leave Washington Monday morning about 10 o'clock for Hot Springs, Virginia. Arrangements for the presidential trip are being perfected, and it is likely that a special train will be provided. The trip is taken by the president in hopes that he may receive benefit from the waters in that vicinity for some rheumatic trouble with which he is said to be suffering. The health of the president, otherwise, is said to be excellent and there is no cause for any alarming reports as to his condition. The chief executive will remain at the Hot Springs for two or three weeks, during which time only important business will be transacted.

Both Mrs. George W. Childs and General Joseph Wheeler are much annoyed over the stories which have been set afloat concerning their alleged engagement. Both of the parties concerned and their friends deny absolutely any foundation for the reports.

Mrs. Coghlan, wife of the captain of the cruiser Raleigh, arrived in Washington Thursday morning. In the afternoon she left, as reported, with Assistant Attorney General Boyd, and Mrs. Heywood, for Wilmington, to be present at the celebration incident to the reception to the vessel.

Many North Carolina people left Washington Thursday afternoon and night for Wilmington to be present at the celebration.

Special service in North Carolina, at Delight, Cleveland county, from Hollybush, has been discontinued, to take effect on May 9th.

Postmasters have been commissioned in North Carolina as follows: Jeremiah B. Seavey, Alpine; Cora L. Johnson, Bryant; and Robert L. Clark, Bulla.

William C. Franklin has been appointed postmaster at Linville, Mitchell county, North Carolina, to succeed Jordan Cook, removed.

Among North Carolina people in Washington are Messrs. A. P. Thorpe, of Rock Mount; S. Bryant, John S. Cunningham, D. J. McLain, Greensboro; H. P. Johnson and C. A. Williams, of Charlotte.

The Ground Will Get Even With You.

The very best advice we have read, outside of the Bible, in many a day is this bit of injunction. Never allow yourself to "hate the very ground" any one walks on. The ground is never to blame. And some day the ground will embrace the object of your enmity, and you too.—Monroe Enquirer.

DAMAGES FOR LYNCHING.

Important Decision by Supreme Court Affecting the Right to Recover.

Columbia, S. C., May 4—The Supreme court set aside the decision of the circuit court in the case of Lawrence Brown, a negro arrested in Orangeburg county, charged with burning a ginhouse, released for lack of evidence and subsequently lynched. Brown's brother brought suit in the circuit court, claiming damages under the provisions of the constitution making counties liable to not less than $2,000 damages. Circuit court Judge Aldrich, before whom the case was tried, without reference to the testimoney, instructed the jury to find no damages, on the ground that no county could be held liable for lynching of a man not in custody of its officers or servants. The Supreme court, in setting aside the verdict of the circuit court and ordering a new trial, points out that the constitution is very clear and holds that lynching is a form of murder for which the county in which it is committed is liable, without extenuating circumstances. Heirs of other lynched men are preparing to file suits.

Atkinson's Opportunity.

Washington, May 5—The opinion is so widespread among lawyers here that the statute under which the administration is intercepting the Atkinson pamphlets is unconstitutional that strong efforts may be made to have the question brought to a test. In the meantime no little wonder is expressed that Mr. Atkinson does not proceed against the attorney general for slander in holding him up to public contempt as a traitor and irresponsible person. If the attorney general had mape these flings in the course of any public proceeding, it would have been accepted as a case of official privilege but the offensive terms were applied in newspaper interviews, and under conditions which, in the judgment of good lawyers, would warrant his victim in calling him to an account personally.

Resigned.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, May 6—Freycinet today tendered his resignation. Senor Monestien was appointed as his successor.

SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1899.

Edgar Allan Poe was elected mayor at Lenoir last Monday. Ulysses S. Grant is farming in the northern part of Stokes county.

When congress meets among the many other cumbrous affairs that will lie heavy on its hands will be the colonial policy which McKinley has adopted.

Funston, it is said, ain't much in books, but when fighting is on the program, the Colonel easily leads the army, both in military genius and bravery.

McKinley is beginning to yearn for his congress, and it is stated that he will call an extra session. The old fellow will probably ask, in his next message, for the army and navy with which to subjugate portions of Africa or the eagle's share of crumbling China.

The Raleigh Morning Post comes to us attired in a new dress of beautiful, clear and larger type. This is an evidence that our esteemed is meeting with encouragement. The Post is a splendid paper, and is doing a noble and telling work for the upbuilding of North Carolina, and we hope it may ever stand steadfast and unshaken on the tost sea.

On the morning of May 28, 1900, betweeen the hours of eight and nine o'clock, there will be a total eclipse of the sun, which will be visible in North Carolina. It is said by scientists that this state is a particularly favorable spot for observation of the eclipse, and learned men of the northern universities are coming to the state on the occasion.

The illustrated industrial edition of the Greensboro Patriot is a very great credit to the city as well as to Editor Barber's energy, patience and ability. The principal business houses of the city are shown in excellent half-tone cuts, as are also our prominent business and professional men and the elaborate write-ups and biographies of the leading industries and the leading men of Greensboro and Guilford county are eminently creditable to the Patriot.

The poetical merit of the following stanzas from the pen of Mr. Maurice Thompson cannot be questioned:

"Bury the old, dead days with reverence;
Rear them a cenotaph and hasten hence
To do what strong men must, strike hard and win.
The young days lead, fall into ranks, fall in.

"No facing rearward now, no weak regret,
No senile croaking o'er a sun that's set;
Look mornward, upward, onward, thrill and cheer,
The young men lead, the young men who scoff at fear.

"Higher run up the flag and further bear it;
Freedom, that glorious robe, all men must wear it;
With never a backward step, right on to win.
Young courage leads, fall into ranks, fall in."

But if Mr. Thompson would employ the "divine applatus" in a holier cause he would enlist a greater degree of applause for his brilliant verse. In the second stanza, first line, the anti-imperialistic reader is pleased by the obscure suggestion that the quarrel was wrong at the beginning, but "being in," we must leave its justness for statesmen to settle, and follow the old flag on to victory or death now; but in the next line is disappointment, and we are enjoined not to croak "o'er a sun that's set," which evidently means that we are not to mourn over the death of the Monroe doctrine and the traditions of our ancestors.

We imagine that way back yonder before Noah laid the foundation o[f] the ark, North Carolina was not a very pleasant place to live for one who had weak nerves, when the forked-tailed dragon prowled in every thicket, winged serpents inhabited the air, and prodigious quadrupeds crashed through the new-grown forests. The giant skeleton of one of these latter—modernly called the mastodon—has been unearthed on an island near Marines, by a Mr. Thomas. One bone of the frightful animal weighs six hundred pounds, and its height is estimated at twenty feet.

Fallen trees formed a dam during a cloudburst at Trempeleau, Wis., and people fled from the flood.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children. —W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The pulling of an ulcerated tooth caused Arthur Shattuck to bleed to death at Gardner, Mass.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Havel Salve, a thoroughly anti-septic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

George F. Wolf, of Philadelphia, while riding on a Brooklyn bridge car, broke his arm against a post.

If you have piles, CURE them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

"THE STARS AND STRIPES

Shall Never Trail the Dust"—Composed By a Greensboro Negro.

'Tis a colored captain's story
That was told to Uncle Sam,
He was mustered out because the war was o'er;
He had borne his honor bravely
And the victory he had won,
He came to deliver up the flag he bore.

He was standing at the white house
With the Stars and Stripes in hand,
His sword and uniform with gore were red;
A bullet had pierced his body
Yet it had not caused his death,
As he gave to him the flag, he slowly said:

Uncle Sam here is "Old Glory,"
That you trusted to my care,
Through the hottest I have ever held my trust;
Though the bullets have rent my body,
But to you I can truly say,
That the Stars and Stripes have never trailed the dust.

CHORUS.

No the Stars and Stripes shall never trail the dust, while I live,
But shall ever wave untarnished o'er the free;
Yes the shells may rend my body,
And let death come if it must,
But t' e Stars and Stripes shall never trail the dust.

Uncle Sam then took the flag
And gazed into the hero's face,
He said, "my son you're black, but still you're a man;
On his breast he placed a medal,
And he said remember me,
To forget you, no my boy, I never can."

Son, your uncle knows no color,
Neither any party line;
The call I made was simply for the brave.
And you loving soldiers heard me
And rallied to the call,
And my country from destruction you have saved.

I saw you darkies bear the flag
Through shells up San Juan Hill,
I saw the Sp niards from your valor flee;
And the Stars and Stripes were waving
O'er Morro Castle bold,
They are waving now in Cuba o'er the free.

CHORUS.

No the Stars and Stripes shall never trail the dust, while I live,
But shall ever wave untarnished o'er the free;
Yes the shells may rend my body
And let death come if it must,
But the Stars and Stripes shall never trail the dust.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W.M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in ths drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Life imprisonment is the sentence of W. A. Brandes, who beat his daughter to death, at Oakland, Cal.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadeldhia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful conditien tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Threat that Cubans Will Fight.

Havana, May 5—El Reconcentrado warns Americans that Cubans will not stand their rule. It says Americans are forgetting their role; they are playing and maintaining themselves in Cuba by force of arms. It declares that Cuba fought Spain fifty years, and will do likewise with America.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 23.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

Alaska's depleted herd of reindeer will be replenished by 1000 head, to be purchased by Rev. Sheldon Jackson, of the interior department.

A shortage of over $20,000 has been found in the books of ex-city treasurer J. E. Wiscoskie, of Argentine, Kan., who is missing.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well: now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

A Card.

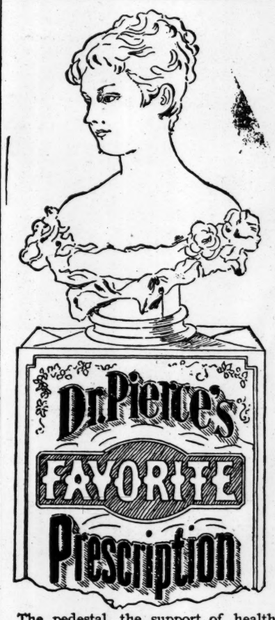
Mr. Editor:—Being anxious for the public to know just what opportunities will be afforded for the purchase of cheap and desirable land at the sale of the Vanbokelin place next Monday afternoon. I beg space enough to say that the management has spent a great deal of time and money in order to get lots in sizes to suit all who expect to buy a nice suburban home and will be greatly surprised if there is not a large crowd of purchasers present when the first lot goes under the hammer at 2:30 p. m. If Greensboro grows and spreads as much in the next five years as she has in the past five years, this property, situated as it is, will bring five times the price it will bring Monday at the sale.

We want to sell rapidly in order to dispose of a large number of lots, and request all purchasers to be on hand promptly.

We do not expect big prices. We have no iron-clad rules and any one who wants to buy can have no excuse.

Very respectfully,

J. F. Jordan.



The pedestal, the support of health and beauty, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There can be no beauty without health. There can be no health when the delicate womanly organs are diseased. Diseases which undermine woman's health and prey upon her beauty, irregular periods, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness, are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of "Favorite Prescription."

At Auction

Monday, May 8, 1899,

At 2:30 O'Clock p. m.

Beautiful Residence Lots, Desirable Land for Truck Farms, Gardens and Fruit Farms. A rare opportunity to secure a tract of land in size and location to suit you, and within the capacity of your pocketbook.

We will offer at public auction at 2:30 o'clock p. m., on Monday, May 8, 1899, a limited number of choice lots in what is known as the Vanbokelin Farm. This body of land lies just north of town and is partly within the city limits of Greensboro. The lots we will offer vary in size from ½ acre to 10 acres each and will be sold on terms as follows; Cash or one-third cash, one-third in six months and one-third in twelve months, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum on deferred payments.

The sale will begin promptly and the property will be sold rapidly and on its merits and there will be no bybids. Purchasers will be expected to take their purchases according to the above conditions.

This land, which lies just three-quarters of a mile by road from the court house and is traversed by the fine road recently built to the battle ground, and also by Park Avenue, which has been rendered available by the construction of a substantial wagon bridge across Buffalo creek, offers very choice and convenient locations for those who desire a larger lot than can be had for a small investment in the city, and yet be within fifteen minutes walk of their business. These lots are on high land, well drained and command a better view of the city than any other location near town affords. Those who wish to live in town and have a small farm outside should not miss this opportunity as there is no other land so convenient to be offered in this vicinity.

The large blast furnace so long idle has now started with all indications of a prosperous career. This fact, in connection with other contemplated improvements, insures a bright future for this section of Greensboro, and as land here must soon increase rapidly in value, our sale presents a splendid opportunity for the man of small means to secure a profitable investment.

There will be no brass band or speech making at this sale. It will be strictly a business transaction and we want you to come out and buy a lot—it will surely make you a profit—but if you don't want to buy, come out any way and pick spring flowers, breathe the balmy air, see the smoke of prosperity roll out of the stack of the blast furnace and hear the hum of the busy machinery at the finishing mill.

Hacks will leave the court house square for the sale at 1:30 p. m., and all who desire to do so may ride out free of charge.

Further information and plats of the property may be had of JORDAN, SINCLAIR & M'DONALD or W. R. LAND.

DON'T FORGET that real estate is the basis of all wealth, and that increasing population causes enhancement in land values. Remember that Greensboro is growing fast and that land cannot be bought next year for what is asked for it now. Don't fool away your opportunities.

SWINDLERS IN TOWN.

Two or Three Suspected Professionals Trying it Here.

Two or three suspected swindlers came to Greensboro this week, and have tried in several ways to hoodoo a number of business men here. One of them, whose scheme is to sell to mill men at an enormous price a receipt for mixing oil, whereby an alleged saving of forty per cent will be made, called on a Greensboro manufacturer last night and acted in such a trifling manner that he was chased out of the yard. He is thought to be the same gentleman who swindled certain mills east of here to the amount of $400 or $500 a few years ago, though enough evidence could not be procured to justify the issuance of a warrant, and he has left town.

Another supposed swindler who has made several unsuccessful attempts here, during the past few days, has discovered that he was being watched by the police and he is also gone. Keep your hand on your pocketbook, however, and use all other precautions.

The men are supposed to be of the same gang who recently worked Charlotte and other towns in the State.

Will Locate Here.

Dr. Burbank, the eminent ophthalmologist, who has been here for the past month, has decided to locate here permanently. Dr. Burbank stands high in his profession, and has treated, corrected and cured the eyes of many prominent people in North and South Carolina. His work stand all tests and is a valuable and lasting testimonial of his skill in prescribing for the eye—the most delicate and yet the most valuable of all the organs. We are glad that one so eminent in this line has decided to cast his lot with us and become a citizen of Greensboro. We welcome him, along with all other good people who come.

A MUSICAL RECITAL.

Given by Prof. Brown's Class Last Evening.

Prof. Clarance R. Brown's music students gave a most enjoyable recital at the home of their talented instructor on West Washington Street last evening. It was the largest attended and most pleasing recital the class has yet given and the improvement of the different students is something that Mr. Brown, as well as they, should be proud of.

The following is part of the excellent program rendered:

Miss Grace Clary—Soprano, solo.
Mr. Wesley White—Baritone, solo.
Miss Lucy Glenn—Contralto, solo.
Prof. Brown and Mr. White—duet.
Mrs. S. L. Alderman, solo—Flute obligato by Mr. Alderman.
Mr. T. J. McAdoo—Tenor, solo.
Mr. R. M. Crawford,—Tenor, solos.
Miss Lillie Poole—solo.
Mrs. Brown—solo.

Though the improvement of all of Prof. Brown's students is pleasing, that of Misses Clary and Glenn is most remarkable. Miss Clary possesses a strong, sweet, soprano voice, and Miss Glenn a rich, deep contralto, and though neither of them has studied long, both sing exceedingly well.
